CAMBRIDGE EXPLOSION BURNS 7

Purifying Tank in Gas Company's Plant Blows Up,
Injuring Workmen

Seven men were burned, some of them seriously, when a gas tank exploded in the plant of the Cambridge Gas Light Company, No. 354 Third street, today.

Eight injured, all employees, who were taken to the Cambridge Hospital, were:

Thomas Burke, No. 17 Olney street, Dorchester.

Daniel King, No. 118 Berkshire street, Cambridge.

Timothy Dwyer, No. 55 Spring street, Cambridge.

Augustus Midrios, No. 383 Windsor street, Cambridge.

John Hurley, No. 13 Fourth street, Cambridge.

Jose Lamar, No. 24 Second street, Cambridge.

Michael Connolly, No. 294 West Brookline street, Boston.

The men had been at work only a short time when, without warning, the top of a gas purifying tank blew off.

The police and fire departments were notified, and an ambulance was called from Cambridge Reformer Hospital. The injured men were hurried into it, and officials of the company ordered that they be taken to the Cambridge Hospital, a private institution.

Firemen fought the flames for nearly an hour.

The plant is located in an isolated flat, some distance from Kendall square. There are no buildings near it.

Officials of the company characterized the matter as a "slight explosion with a little flame," and said the men were only "singed."

At the hospital, it was said some of the men were seriously burned.

General Manager Barnes of the Gas Company, who arrived at the plant shortly after the explosion, said the explosion was caused when the seven men were emptying the purifying tank.

He said in removing the purifying material from the tank, they struck a steel instrument against metal, causing a spark which ignited the gas. Barnes said the damage to the building was slight.

Salm Can't Follow Millicent to U. S.; He's 'Broke'

Berlin, June 16.—Count Ladwig Salm Von Hoogstraten, Austrian nobleman who married Miss Millicent Rogers of New York, heiress to a $400,000 Standard Oil fortune, is "broke."

The Count's plight was revealed today by his friend, Miss Lyla De Putti, beautiful Hungarian moving picture actress. It is understood the Count wishes to follow his bride six months to the United States but is prevented by temporary financial embarrassment.

"When he arrived in Berlin, Count Salm had money, but he spent it," said Miss De Putti. "He first told me that he did not accompany the Countess when she went to New York with her father five weeks ago because he wanted to remain in Europe to play tennis in the Olympic eliminations."

BILL BRENNAN'S FRIEND CULLEN IS DEAD, TOO

New York, June 16.—With Frank Rossi and James Hughes under arrest, police today were trying to find a motive for the slaying of "Big Bill" Brennan, well known pugilist, who twice fought Jack Dempsey.

Brennan was called from his restaurant, Club Tia Juana, on Upper Broadway, early in the morning and shot to death without warning.

James Cullen, formerly a State trooper attached to the White Plains barracks, was shot in the neck when he pursued Brennan's slayers. He died today in the hospital.

Brennan was shot twice through the body. He died in the hospital without regaining consciousness. He was sitting at a table, chatting with his sister, Shirley Brennan, a singer in the restaurant, when he was called outside and slain.

FOUGHT DEMPSEY.

Brennan is the son of two men who have been in the ring with Dempsey for more than ten rounds. He was considered one of the most formidable of the heavyweight title seekers when he retired from the ring a few months ago.

Both of the alleged slayers have long criminal records. Police say Hughes formerly fought as Terry O'Neil, a lightweight.

The slayers stubbornly refused to talk. Brennan, just after he was shot, said:

$2,000,000 IN DRUGS SEIZED

Treasury Officials Declare Arrest of Two Men Bares Gi-
gant Smuggling Plot

New York, June 16.—Drugs valued at more than $2,000,000 were seized last Saturday on a truck coming off a pier at Hoboken, N. J., it became known today.

R. D. Esterbrook, chief of the special agents of the Treasury Department, who conducted the raid, said the seizure uncovered one of the most elaborate schemes for smuggling narcotics into the United States.

The drugs were secreted in the hold of a 5,000 scrubbing brush. The cases in which they arrived had been watched since the steamship President Roosevelt docked June 5, Esterbrook said.

Saturday the treasury agents saw two men climb the coxles and load them on a truck, which was seized as it started off the pier. The men, who gave their names as Abraham Palmvig and Otto Anderson, both of New York, were arrested.

$2,000,000 IN 2 YEARS.

The seizure broke up a German syndicate, Chief Esterbrook said, which had smuggled drugs valued at more than $5,000,000 into the United States in two years.

Treasury agents working for two years in several foreign countries unearthed the smuggling scheme. A year ago an agent at Bremen, Germany, by chance opened several cases labeled "brushes" and "returned German goods." He found only bricks and stones wrapped in paper.

The boxes had been shipped to Germany in bond, supposedly from Trinidad by way of the United States.

This disclosure was called to the Treasury Department at Washington and agents here were instructed to watch all cargoes coming from Germany.

A month ago it was learned that the same cases, re-packed, were shipped from Bremen on the President Roosevelt, consigned to Trinidad by way of the United States. In care of Palmvig.

FROM TRINIDAD, TOO.

Chief Esterbrook and his men found that Palmvig, a heavy truckman, who had hauled only three consignments from ships in a year, was to transfer the cases to a South American steamship line, Brooklyn, and agents watched him closely.

As suspected three cases, labeled "brushes," arrived on the President Roosevelt. They lay in storage.

Smoke Up, Ladies! Here's Special Car All Your Own

Chicago, June 16.—Equal rights for women took another step forward here today when the Illinois Central Railway attached to its St. Louis-Chicago daylight special a lounge and smoking car for women.

They may smoke there to their hearts' content without fear of intrusion from men, railway officials stated. The car will be a regular part of the train in the future.

ORDERS HOGAN BROUGHT INTO COURT

Failure of William M. Hogan, former Cambridge City Councilor, to appear in Middlesex Superior Court today for sentence on a bribery charge, resulted in Judge Whiting ordering his counsel to produce Hogan before the day was over.

Councilor Hogan was convicted and sentenced for alleged acceptance of a $200 bribe for securing a permit for Abe H. Hyde, Cambridge manufacturer, to move a building.

Exceptions taken in the case were overruled June 13 by the Supreme Court. Today before Judge Whiting, Assistant District Attorney Bushnell moved that stay of sentence granted Hogan pending a ruling on the exceptions be revoked and sentence of one year be imposed.

John J. Higgins, counsel for Hogan, asked a continuance, declaring that the Supreme Court had overlooked one exception, Judge White, however, ordered him to produce Hogan today.

THOUGHT TO HAVE FLED WITH HIM

Friends Believe She Patched Up Broken Truth With
Newton Man and Elop

Stirred by the strange disappearance of her friend, Miss Grace E. Eason, Back Bay telephone instructor and former fiancée of her brother, Miss Fannie S. Pearce left Randolph, N. H., for Boston, today, to help the search for the missing girl.

The telephone instructor, who vanished from her home, No. 17 Irving street, on the eve of her wedding to Philip Shaughnessy, was engaged a year and a half ago, to Philip Pearce, of Newton, today's developments in the mysterious case revealed.

Only a month ago Miss Eason wrote Miss Pearce at Randolph, N. H., and the letter was answered. This answer was found today in the Back Bay room where the telephone instructor abandoned her transients and an engagement ring.

Her mother of Miss Eason objected to Pearce. Mrs. Eason declared the herself. Her objection to the contractor as the father of her daughter caused an estrangement between the trio, according to the mother.

BROKE ENGAGEMENT.

"I never liked his looks," Mrs. Eason explained. "He would never show me his face. He was always in a mask of the night and was Turn Over."

HUGHES'S REPLY TO JAPAN DELIVERED

Washington, June 16.—The United States government today replied to the Japanese protest against the exclusion act in a note handed by Secretary of States Hughes to Ambassador Hoshihara for transmission to Tokyo. The reply was firm, but couched in conciliatory terms and denied that the immigration bill violated any existing treaties between the United States and Japan. Its text will not be announced until it has been received in Tokyo.

BODY OF WOMAN IN NIAGARA FALLS

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 16.—The body of a woman was sighted today fast on a small rock near the Rock of Ages, close by the Cave of the Winds, in the Gorge, between the Horseshoe and American Falls on the American side. It appeared to be that of a young woman with long dark hair, clothed in a light waist and dark skirt. Efforts were made to reach it by a rowboat in vain. Reservation workers will try to lasso the body.

WARREN QUILTS POST AS ENVOY TO MEXICO

Washington, June 16.—Charles Beecher Warren, United States Ambassador to Mexico, has tendered his resignation to President Coolidge, effective July 1. It was learned here today. Drafted into the American diplomatic service by the late President Harding, Warren served with distinction as Ambassador to Japan, resigning a year ago to return to private life. Subsequently he accepted the post in Mexico. Recently Mr. Coolidge picked Warren as chairman of the committee which wrote the Republican platform at the Cleveland convention.

CONDITIONS TONIGHT

Radio receiving conditions will be good for stations broadcasting in the East and Middle West, and bad for stations broadcasting in the South and Southwest, because of a difference in barometric pressure.

BABY WITH HUMAN SIZED HEART DIES, AGED 8 MONTHS AND A HALF

ACROUSED MEDICAL WORLD

Allston Infant's Case Second in History; Doctors Predicted Death

Alden Clair Taylor, the baby with a man's size heart, died today at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, No. 21 Mansfield street, Allston. Doomed to suffering if he had lived, the child's life was abruptly ended at the age of eight months and a half.

His case aroused the medical world, for having been said there was only one instance in medical history of a baby born with a heart the size of a full grown man's.

The abnormal condition was discovered when a physician was called in because baby Alden did not develop as he should. As a result a specialist ordered X-ray photographs made, which revealed the fact that the baby's heart extended almost over the entire chest.

The child experienced much difficulty in breathing, which kept him in an exhausted condition and made gain in weight almost impossible. At that time physicians predicted that the baby would not live.

RADCLIFFE HEARS CLASS DAY SPEECHES

Radcliffe class day exercises were held today in the theatre in Agassiz House, Cambridge. Miss Harriet Vera introduced the speakers. Miss Catherine Connor gave the class history.

Miss Dorothy Devore, then read a class play, followed by Miss Gusta Macneely, class poetess. Miss Julia Macneely, awarded to each member of the class a trinket.

Tonight at 6 o'clock the senior class will have the annual senior spread outdoors in the Radcliffe yards. Miss Helen Lovett of Arlington heads the committee on arrangements.

ROXBURY MAN HELD ON AUTO CHARGES

James G. Burgess, 249 Washington street, Roxbury, was arrested today by Patrolman Landon of the Roxbury Crossing station, charged with using an automobile without authority and not stopping and making himself known after collision with another automobile. Landon later charged Burgess with larceny of surgical instruments belonging to Dr. P. C. Mottier of 48 Chancy street, Roxbury, and with using his automobile without authority.

He was arraigned before Judge Hayden in Roxbury court, pleaded not guilty and the case will come on next Wednesday. Bail was fixed at $10,000.

COURT FORBIDS USE OF NAME 'HARPER'

New York, June 16.—Supreme Court Justice Black today decided in favor of Harper and Brothers, publishers, their suit for an injunction to restrain the new Harper's Weekly Corporation from using the name "Harper." The publication has no connection with the former Harper's Weekly.

Justice Black rejected claims for damages.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD IN SUGAR PRODUCTION

Honolulu, June 16.—The New Sugar plantation on the island of Oahu, Mrs. Honolulu is situated, has set a new world's record for sugar production with a field that produced 34.8 tons per acre. The approximate net value of each acre is $1,700.

DALLINGER IN MOVE FOR FOREST AT CAPE

Washington, June 16.—Representative Dallinger of Massachusetts filed a petition today with the national Forest Reservation Commission asking the establishment of the Cape Cod area of an Eastern national forest.

HUNDREDS AID IN SEARCH FOR LOST AIKEN CHILD

AIKEN INQUIRY

has attracted people to the scene of the mystery in such numbers that 500 automobiles are parked in the nearby roads and special traffic police are required to handle the crush of vehicles bearing people to North Southfield. They come reverently by the thousands, not to gaze and ask questions but to tramp the fields searching.

Today they are here, after straggling, marching across the fields and through the thickets, dragging pitchforks, lanterns and water holes, impelled by a force stronger than curiosity—pity.

MANY FRIENDS NOW

Viola Aiken, the girl who disappeared from the farm house May 24, has found a host of friends who are here to find her, to help her, and to speed her home.

The meadows are soggy with today's rain. The skies are lowering and the rain clouds threaten. But undaunted, the army of Viola's friends continues the search. It seems that the whole State of Rhode Island has sent representatives to help find the boy.

Only Viola's mother, Mrs. Viola Aiken, is not searching. Silent, apathetic, she waits in the house of correction at Howard for Attorney-General Herbert L. Carpenter, who is to question her next.

Attorney-General Carpenter said he believes the authorities who have been handling the case are right in working on the presumption that the child has been murdered. The full force of the Rhode Island State authorities has now been called to clear up the mystery.

Upon assuming active charge of the case, Attorney-General Carpenter visited the scene of the supposed crime, the Mowry farm, and surrounding in North Southfield, and went over the ground foot by foot accompanied by a squad of local constables and police.

NEW CLUE FOUND

One new clue was discovered. There was a bushel basket found near two rocks, which contained a culvert not far from the Mowry farm. It is believed possible that the child's body was transported in this basket by the persons interested in concealing it.

The spot where the basket was found is in a line between the farm house and the Tarklin Pond. A substance that appeared to be human flesh was found in the mud in the bottom of Tarklin Pond. Authorities were in doubt whether it was of value to them as a clue or whether part of a fish which someone had ripped out and thrown overboard from a boat.

Three thousand men, women and children gathered at North Southfield and searched the ponds, swamps and woods for the body of little Viola.

The visitors came in response to a call for volunteer searchers broadcast by Chief of Police William J. Allen.

All of the watchers talked of "finding the body." Chief Allen, however, is convinced the child's body was dismembered, the torso buried and the head and members buried into one of the nearby ponds.

MISSING VIOLA AIKEN

Latter photo at top left is Mrs. Viola Aiken, mother of the missing child, who is being held by the Rhode Island State authorities on a statutory charge pending the search for her missing daughter.

Atty.-Gen. Carpenter announced he had ordered four Providence police inspectors sent to North Southfield to work as detectives until the mystery of the child's disappearance has been solved.

First Assistant Attorney General Hurley was assigned by Attorney General Carpenter to go to the scene and take charge there until the mystery is solved.

TO SEARCH POND

The banks of the Slaterville reservoir, in the sluceway of which children reported seeing what they appeared to be the leg of a small child, were to be thoroughly searched, the authorities having been unable to shake in the most particular the stories told by the children.

The Attorney General, with County Solicitor Everett Walling, spent all day at the scene.

While he laid his plans for the grilling of Mrs. Aiken the Attorney General announced also that James Graham was to be required to make a complete statement of his doings on the day the child disappeared.

"I don't believe this case will be cleared up until some statement of value to us is obtained from the baby's mother," Mr. Carpenter said. "I hoped it would be possible before questioning her in detail to have found some clue, but we cannot wait any longer."

"Because of the length of time the child has been gone, since May 24, my suggestion that she may have just wandered away and died in the woods is pretty well disproved. The body would have been found by this time. In all probability had that been the case the authorities were right in presuming foul play."

FATHER IS AIDING

The missing child's father, John A. Aiken, from whom the mother was estranged, is helping the police, although the mother has charged that he knows what has become of the child.

Heretics are believed to have been found in the stories told informally to reporters and others by Mrs. Aiken.

Whereas she said she spent five days in the field at a point of view where she could watch the far house and also transmit any signals she desired to Graham, at work plowing in the field, she was also at the time that the child dropped from sight. In the evening Mrs. Aiken and Graham drove off in a truck, and upon returning said they had been to the cross roads and back, a very short distance, although they were absent an hour and a half.

FLEEING TRUCK THIEF STABS THE OWNER

John Kilroy of No. 185 Fisher avenue, Roxbury, was stabbed and seriously injured today by a man whom he caught attempting to steal his auto truck on Parker Hill, near the hospital.

Kilroy's screams aroused the neighbors, who made a vain search of the district for his assailant. Later Patrolman McDonald of the Roxbury Crossing station said he recognized the description given by Kilroy and applied for a John Lee warrant.

Kilroy said he saw the man trying to start the truck. He gave chase when the man ran, but the other suddenly turned and plunged a knife into his pursuer. He then dashed into the underbrush and made his escape.

BUTLER IN CHICAGO TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN

Chicago, June 16.—William M. Butler, new chairman of the Republican National Committee, conferred here today with party leaders preparatory to starting the Presidential campaign in earnest. Plans to place the new national committee in good running order also were discussed. The headquarters of the committee will be here.

Says Husband Bit Her Nose, So She Jumped Through Window

Mrs. Mary Kearforn, thirty-four, of No. 394 Huntington street, East Boston, is the proud mother of six healthy boys.

Yesterday she suggested to Donnell, her husband, that as Joseph, one of their sons, was to be graduated from the John Chivers school this week, he should have a new suit. An argument followed, in which it was alleged the husband told the wife to leave.

Mrs. Kearforn, fearing further punishment, jumped from the second-story window of their home on the sidewalk, a distance of twenty feet. She was taken to the East Boston Police station, suffering from injuries to the spine.

Nowwithstanding her injuries the woman appeared at East Boston Court today and pleaded with Judge Brown not to have her husband arrested, but to instruct the police to restrain him from molesting her any more.

MICHIGAN HONORS POET LAUREATE

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 16.—Robert Bridges, poet laureate of England, and Grville Wright, pioneer inventor of heavy-thrust machines, were among the twelve persons awarded honorary degrees by the University of Michigan today.

Mr. Bridges, who has spent the last three months on the campus here, was given the degree of doctor of laws. Mr. Wright was made a doctor of engineering. Among other honors were Miss Wills Carter, author of New York, and Glenn Frank, magazine editor, New York.

ROBBED, BEATEN BECAUSE ROLL WAS SMALL

Jacob Nicholson of No. 7 Tanager street, Cambridge, divided his bank roll with four men in East Boston today, only to be given a beating for not having more money.

Nicholson, who was on his way home, was stopped by the men near the terminal of the East Boston tunnel. They told him they had lost all their money in a card game and asked him to lend them some.

"Now give us the rest of it," one of the gang cried, whereupon they seized Nicholson by the throat, took his $2.50 and then beat him up because he had no more.

Nicholson staggered to the East Boston police station and reported the matter. He described the men all better about twenty-five years old, wearing dark clothes and of foreign aspect. The police started a search of the district.

DAWN-TO-DUSK FLIER IN RETURN FLIGHT

Columbus, Neb., June 16.—Major William J. Brannan, captain of the U. S. Army Air Service Station at Mitchell Field, New York, will hop off tomorrow by the morning train on a return flight to New York following his dawn-to-dusk flight yesterday from Mitchell Field to Columbus to visit his parents, Judge and Mrs. W. H. Henley.

MONAHAN TRIAL IN KLAN DEATHS IS STARTED

Thirty Others, 17 Klansmen and 13 Lilly Residents, Are Under Like Indictments

Elmhurst, Pa., June 16.—William Monahan, a youth of twenty, went to trial for murder today in connection with the death of three young men of Lilly, Pa., on April 1, when a fight broke out between Lilly residents and alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan, who marched through the town.

Monahan is the first resident of Lilly to be tried on the murder indictment. Samuel Evans Klansman, was acquitted last week. Thirty other men, seventeen Klan members and thirteen Lilly residents, are under similar indictments.

A defense motion that the case be dismissed was overruled and the selection of a jury was taken up. The motion was based upon the ground that the evidence would be the same as that submitted against Monahan and other defendants when they were found guilty of affray and unlawful assembly.

The indictment named Floyd Paul as the victim of the fight.

INJURED AUTOMOBILE RACER IMPROVING

Altoona, Pa., June 16.—The condition of the injured automobile racer was improving.

The driver of the automobile which was involved in a crash on the State highway at Altoona, Pa., was improving today.

They gave their names as John Griffin, No. 124 Highland street, Frank McGrath, No. 444 Essex street, Scott Wilson, No. 71 Jamaica street, and John McNally, no address given.

INTERMEDIATE AMERICAN BONUS BUREAU WITH QUERIES

AMERICAN BONUS BUREAU WITH QUERIES

By THE BOLDIERS' FRIEND

"Am I entitled to the bonus? How shall I go about getting it?" Is the widow of a World War veteran, having married again, eligible to the benefits of the new law?

These and similar questions, received in almost every mail, move quickly the editors of the Soldiers' Friend Bureau of the Boston American and the Boston Evening Post, opened by order of Mr. Harriet at No. 10 Summer street.

So many questions from all parts of New England are so very much alike that if you read these answers, it may not be necessary to make the inquiry which is in your own mind.

The next big event in the life of the Soldiers' Friend Bureau will be the arrival of the application blanks. They ought to be along now in a day or two. Nobody can be looking forward to their arrival more eagerly than the Soldiers' Friend.

"NO CHARGE."

What the blanks are here, the staff of the bureau will be at your service. You may have whatever assistance you will require in making out your application. Your inquiry will be taken by Mr. Harriet, and as has been said before, "no charge for anything."

"Old Boston Days" Pageant Being Held on Beacon Hill, Says Betty Alden

By BETTY ALDEN

There are many of long ago striding round Boston town today, with powdered dames upon their arms. There's a cove on the Common, and a mikimik by its side. There are stage-women in ring round, and they're dancing quadrilles upon the Green. For Beacon Hill has reverted to the days of the Revolution, and you'd hardly know the old town. The fete, "Old Boston Days," is being held there.

The oldest houses on the Hill have been opened all day. Members of our very best families, wearing primitive gowns of their great-grandmothers, presided at old silver services, and served their very best tea to the hundreds of guests.

There's been an old-time atmosphere hanging like a sweet, half-forgotten mist over all the Hill. Wedding guests of ancient days made their appearance this afternoon, and all guests were at gay White House parties well worn this evening by many lovely debutantes—presentation gowns, too, that once graced the Court of St. James.

All through the evening the revelry will continue. There'll be music, and outdoor dancing, and boozies where all may buy.

SAYS RADIO MAY BE BOY'S PIG-EYE OPERATION TO TRY AGAIN

New York, June 15.—Alfred Loman, the Londonist, N. Y. blind youth, on whom an attempt to graft an eye last year was unsuccessful, is about to make another chance.

Loman is preparing for another operation by Dr. E. B. Morgan of Paterson, N. J., and both are hopeful of success. The young man is anxious to undergo the operation again, chiefly because he wants to see his mother. He lost his eyesight ten years ago playing with fireworks.

"The doctor feels quite confident that the operation will be successful this time," he said. "It's not an easy one, but I'm not an expert. But there is nothing like taking a chance. What have I to lose? I am willing to try anything once. Life is nothing but a gamble."

In the meantime the young man is anxious to obtain a position of some kind in order that he may help his mother.

GOVERNMENT AT ODDS WITH HOUSE OF LORDS

London, June 15.—Parliament resumed today after the Whitsun holiday vacation with the prospect of long and arduous sessions and small probability that the government will be able to carry out several legislative measures to which it is committed.

Today's business brings the government for the first time into conflict with the House of Lords, which has as its agenda the administration of the law for provision of evidence in the House of Commons.

The government's intention to move the rejection of all amendments was understood beforehand, and rejection will be supported by the Liberals.

B. I. STUDENTS TOO YOUNG FOR LAW DEGREES

Awarded Certificates Pending Attainment of Majority: Pres. Talks on Loyalty

Thirty-one students of the Boston University Law School were awarded certificates instead of degrees at the graduation exercises in Symphony Hall today because they are not yet twenty-one years old.

The degree of bachelor of laws will be given these students only when they have attained their majority.

A plea for loyalty was the keynote of the farewell address of President Lemuel H. Murlin to the 1,105 students of Boston University who received their diplomas.

Following the presentation of diplomas, a brief address was made by the Rev. Ralph W. Loomis, D.D., of New York City, associate minister of Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church of that city.

Among the local students who received the degrees of master of arts, master of science, and master of education were: Charles C. Adams, Waltham; Clarence R. Adams, Waltham; Ethel J. Hirsch, Dorchester; Mary M. Brawley, Roxbury; Anna P. Butler, Cambridge; Amos A. Capone, Chatham; Marion J. Cawley, Cambridge; Marie D. Doherty, Cambridge; Constance R. Dowd, Dorchester; R. Dorothy is the closest rival. It lost the race by only one. Third most popular name is Elizabeth, which claim possession of thirty-one girls. Next comes Helen; it appears twenty-seven times in the catalogue.

Other popular names are Margaret, appearing fifteen times; Katherine and Ruth, seventeen times each; Anna, fifteen times; Marion, fourteen times; and Frances, thirteen times. Alice and Elmer are used twelve times each. Florence, eleven girls; Esther and Harriet ten girls each.

DONNS HER BEST GOWN; THEN ENDS LIFE

Young Wife "Tired of Living": Asks That She Be Buried in Her Lace Dress

New York, June 15.—"Tired of life," Mrs. Margaret Martin, twenty-two years old, committed suicide by filling the kitchen of her luxurious Greenwich Village apartment with gas. Gas company employees and police broke into the apartment, found the body of Mrs. Martin, clad in her finest dressing gown of blue and pink silk, reclining in a comfortable chair.

No motive for the suicide could be discovered other than the weariness mentioned in a note to her mother. Her purse contained a letter of divorce from Frederick Martin, granted in Oklahoma for "gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty." She had two diamond rings. The apartment was extensively furnished and a close, comfortable, fashionable clothing and fur.

Mrs. Martin had been employed in the office of Morris Hillquit, socialist leader.

In her note to her mother, she said: "I am very tired and hope to find some rest where I am going. I don't want to die, but I want you to have everything of mine—my other diamond is in the office. Buy me in my lace dress and don't spend any money on me. Love to all."

'THIRD PARTY' NATIONAL CONVENTION WILL BACK LA FOLLETTE

LEADERS MEET AT ST. PAUL

Insist on Endorsing Senator for President Despite His Denunciation

By CHARLES N. WHEELER
St. Paul, Minn., June 16 (Universal).—Senator Robert M. La Follette will be endorsed for President by the "Third Party" national convention here this week, despite his repudiation of the gathering.

While the convention will be dominated by Communists, when La Follette last week denounced in his recent open letter, the prime movers are determined to induce him as a matter of self-preservation.

C. B. Rutenber, William Z. Foster, Joseph Bailey (father of the "Workers' Party," which is affiliated with the Moscow International) attended preliminary conferences.

MAHONEY IN CHARGE.
William A. Mahoney, long a labor leader and editor of labor publications, will be temporary chairman of the convention when it opens in the Auditorium tomorrow, and is working in close touch with the Rutenber-Foster forces.

While he objects to being classed as a Communist, he still insists that the "Workers' Party," which is the Communist's political vehicle in this country, has just as good a right as any other protesting minority to a voice in the convention.

"What we have aimed at all along," said Mr. Mahoney, "is to get the people of this country behind some movement or some man who will smash up the old party brand."

La Follette, it seems to me, is the man all voters sincerely interested in getting the Government back in the hands of the people, can support at this time.

FOR FREE SPEECH.
"I don't see how he can stop us anybody else from supporting him. He is for free speech and we are, and for free assemblies. If we want to get together and endorse him for President or for anything else, I don't understand that he can prevent us."

The convention managers assert that more than thirty states will be represented in the convention. They deny the report that they planned to substitute local labor men and large labor from the Buffalo labor party and the Amalgamated Garment Workers of New York for the farmer representatives who have cancelled their reservations.

Mahoney was selected temporary chairman and official keynoter, and C. B. Rutenber, a labor leader and affiliated with the Rutenber-Foster group, temporary secretary.

The Rev. Howard Williams of the People's Church, of Omaha, Neb., will be a prominent speaker, and is chairman of the committee on nominations.

At the close of the conference, Mr. Mahoney announced that if La Follette finally goes into the field as an independent candidate, the St. Paul group would support him, and in order not to break the progressive forces of the country.

WOMAN SLAIN; POSSES SEEK FOR HUSBAND

Milwaukee, June 16.—Every automobile highway in Wisconsin, south of Milwaukee, was patrolled today by sheriffs' posse seeking a man who fled from a tourist camp at Wittenberg shortly before the body of his bride of a week was found in a shallow grave.

The man gave the name of George P. Cummings of Grand Rapids, Mich. The couple appeared at the tourist camp Saturday with equipment for a long stay. The woman appeared to be less than fifteen years older than her husband, and told other tourists they had been married just a week.

The man appeared alone about their first Sunday morning, and soon drove away, only to appear a few minutes later for assistance in getting his automobile out of a roadside ditch, excitedly offering $25.

Several hours later the farmer returned to the scene of the accident. Examination of a small mound revealed the body of Mrs. Cummings, who was in an old army blanket, tied with rope and buried under two feet of earth. She had been killed by three blows on the head, apparently with a hatchet.

HARVARD MAN'S SMART SET

A book that is destined to afford members of "Boston's" many opportunities for introspection, is "Dance," the first novel by Markie "Bugs" McKee Henry, Harvard undergraduate and athlete.

The novel, put on the stands today by Small, Maynard & Company, deals with the innermost circle of society in Boston, Palm Beach, Philadelphia, Newport and New York.

TO WEB SOCIETY GIRL.
The author writes autobiographically in addition to his membership in exclusive Harvard organizations, he is to marry Miss Barbara Whitney, daughter of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney of New York after his graduation.

"Dance" is the frankest yet in revealing a story of a middle-aged bachelor, Harvard graduate and former school teacher, who has inherited a fortune and a house on Beacon Hill.

It deals largely with the activities of the social set into which he was accepted, and in particular with various affairs of a gay youth who had once been his pupil, "faded" by there is a real love story woven into the tale.

PROMINENT AT HARVARD.
The author was president of his junior class at Harvard; a member of the freshman football team, president of the Pullman House, undergraduate president of the Hasty Pudding Club, and chairman of the Amalgamation Committee which brought about the amalgamation of Harvard's two oldest clubs, the Hasty Pudding and the Institute of 1770, and at the same time the abolition of the D. K. E. Fraternity.

Last year, in collaboration with P. H. Nichols, Henry wrote "Talk a Bunch," the Hasty Pudding Play, and he was aide of the Harvard Lampoon. He is captain of the 1924 Varsity crew, and for two previous years was member of it, and also second marshal of his graduation class.

BOMB HOMES OF 2 DRY ADVOCATES

Hartford, Conn., June 16.—Two dynamite bombs exploded here, shaking the entire city, causing the partial destruction of two houses and breaching windows of several other adjacent homes. No persons were injured by the explosion. The bombs are thought to have been set by persons opposing recent liquor raids made in Sutter County, Illinois.

The first explosion occurred at the home of Hubert Hawkins, who is a local prohibitionist, and was active in the activities of the Sutter County Chapter of Sutter County, Illinois, in dealing with liquor raids.

13 STATES FOR DRY ACT MODIFICATION

Washington, June 16.—The political leanings of 13 states will be affected by the action of the Executive Convention in New York on the liquor question, according to a survey made by agents of the nation against the prohibition amendment.

As listed in a statement by Capt. W. N. Starling, founder of the association, the states whose voters have a "very intense sentiment" for the Volstead law are New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Ohio, Florida, Missouri, Maryland, California, Michigan, Montana and Washington.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets Are What Is Needed

If the only knew that she could put on at least 5 pounds of good, healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face and run-down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, create appetite, build up the power to resist disease and chase away nervousness.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day a few more people are taking it for doctors' prescriptions.

They can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, which druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

It's a wonderful upbuilding medicine for children, especially after sickness, and gives tablets only cost 50 cents.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

GUARD CHURCH AFTER THREATS TO BURN

Police Called in Trouble Arising Out of Removal of Cambridge Priest

A detail of police patrolled the grounds of St. Anthony's Church, Portland and Haverhill streets, Cambridge, night and day, to prevent the church from being burned down in protest against the dismissal of an assistant pastor.

The police guards were stationed at the church at the request of the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Anthony Pimental, after he declared, he received several threats by telephone to destroy the church by fire.

The pastor who was dismissed is the Rev. Fr. Albert Duarte, who has for about two years served the church in the capacity of assistant to the pastor.

HOLD PROTEST MEETING.
Members of the Holy Name society of the church attempted to hold a protest meeting in the basement of the edifice, but were barred by the pastor.

Therewith the members of the society, numbering about 60, proceeded to the Santa Christo Church, in Tapan, Mass.

They took a bus to the church, but were barred from holding another meeting Tuesday. Father Duarte came from the church down.

Actor and Actress Are Wed Between Performances

Tommy Howard and Anna Pigeon were married in the rectory of St. James' Catholic Church. They are playing in a local theatre under the name of Howard and Pigeon. They were introduced by "Buddy" Shepard and Eleanor Ott, also doing a turn at a local theatre. Rev. Fr. Robert E. Lee, curate at the church, performed the ceremony.

The couple played in the afternoon and evening, slipping out between shows for the wedding. They will spend their honeymoon playing in Quincy and Cambridge.

Shortly after Father Duarte left the church, he was informed by several three years ago for the purpose of learning about the manners and customs of American churches. After his arrival as assistant pastor in a church in Providence, he came to Boston.

Then, said Father Pimental, by special permission from Cardinal O'Connor, Father Duarte was allowed to come to St. Anthony's Church to serve as assistant pastor. He continued to act in this capacity for about two years.

KLAN RECEIPTS FOR ONE YEAR $2,208,809

Officers Paid $870,000 In Salaries; 450,000 New Members

New York, June 16.—Amazing light was shed today on the numerical strength of the Ku Klux Klan, a question at this time of political moment—when an audit of the Klan's official records made by a New York firm of accountants for the Klan itself was made public.

This audit covered the fiscal year ending July 31, 1923. Some of the summarized activities of the Klan during that year, as revealed by the audit, were as follows:

New members, 450,000. Year's receipts $2,208,809.44; payments to officers $870,000; revenue derived from new members $1,528,809.44; total expenditures $1,285,224.41; net profit $243,585.

Perhaps the point of greatest significance in the report is the financial weakness of the Klan in the South, which is generally believed to be its stronghold, and its strength in New York, New Jersey and the Middle West, particularly Ohio and Indiana.

How To Keep A Child Healthy

A GENERATION ago parents thought that sickness was a part of a child's life, but we know better now. The secret is in the food we give the child. The child who eats the food that is best for him, and in watching that elimination occurs regularly, two or three times a day. Mrs. J. Russell of 1914 Havana Ave., Detroit, Mich., keeps her family of seven young children in perfect health with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

"I have used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for years," says Mrs. J. Russell. "It has kept my family of three children healthy, never been sick a day since giving them Syrup Pepsin."

A Substitute for Physics
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific compound of Pepsin, a natural stomachic, and Syrup Pepsin, a natural laxative, in every package. You will find you do not have to force children to take it, and it is much better for them than castor oil, salami, or other drugs like phenolphthalein even if covered with sugar or chocolate. Syrup Pepsin is mild and gentle in action and your child will have a easy passage without griping or strain. It does not contain arsenic, and you can give it with absolute safety to an infant at the breast.

"Magic" in a Teaspoonful
Every store that sells medicines sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It costs less than a cent a dose. Give half a teaspoonful to any ailing baby or child at night when you put it to bed and you will find a happy, laughing youngster in the morning. Take Syrup Pepsin yourself when constipated, and give it to any member of the family young or old, for any ailment due to constipation, such as biliousness, headache, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, bad breath, cankers, fever, sore, indigestion, and to break up fever and cold. Stop that first sneeze or sniffle and you will have a healthy winter.

GIRL ARRESTED FOR WEDDING "BROTHER" INSISTS ACCUSERS LIE

DECLARES THEY NEVER LIVED TOGETHER; ANOTHER MAN FATHER OF HER CHILD

Newton, N. H., June 16.—In a voice that faltered with inexpressible grief and trembled with resentment, Elizabeth Ruth Dart, the friendless New Hampshire girl, who is charged with having married her brother, known as Louis W. Rollins, denied she had ever lived on terms of a married woman with him.

"The only honeymoon I ever enjoyed," she sobbed, "was a two-hour ride in a flower from Hampton to Amesbury. But I guess that is the only honeymoon the world wants me to enjoy."

The interest of the countryside is centered in the strange case of this young couple, into whose lives drifted a trail of cloud of sorrow.

PAY FOR MISTAKE.

Elizabeth, the mother of a three-year-old girl, says it was her intention following her marriage in April to return to take the child and go to New York, where they might start life anew.

"Four years ago when I was little more than a child," she said, "I made a mistake. It was a mistake that girls make the world over. I have paid for my sin with suffering and now I want to forget."

"The greatest injustice people can say is to accuse Rollins. Four years ago I did not even know him except through an occasional friendly letter to him in Canada."

"I might tell the world the name of the man but I shall not. It would do me no good now. Perhaps when my trial comes up and it is the only way to clear my name, I shall be forced to. As it is the secret is mine only."

"It was only about two years ago I knew I really had a mother. I was taken to visit her but it was a strain of feeling that made me submit to her claims."

"When I was thirteen, a mere baby of two, this woman gave me up, the police say. I don't believe it, but supposing she did, what right has she to step forward now and claim me? She has no right to expect me to return the love she robbed me of."

"I don't know who I am and don't much care but I have enough self-respect to know I would never have married my own mother. It just can't be, that's all."

INSISTS THEY NEVER HAD HONEYMOON

ELIZABETH RUTH DART

Newton, N. H., girl, who was arrested for wedding her "brother," from whom she had been separated in infancy. It is said. She declares that though they were married they never lived together as man and wife and that the father of her three-year-old child is another man whose name she refuses to reveal unless forced to in court to clear her name. Inset is photo of Louis W. Rollins when she married and who is said to be her brother.

Paris.—The American hospital in Paris has received a subscription of $50,000 in gold from the trustees of the war fund of the American Young Men's Christian Association toward its new, 12-story memorial building now under construction.

Jerusalem.—Cardinal Giesse, assisted by the Patriarch of Jerusalem, two bishops and other members of the clergy, consecrated the newly constructed Basilica of Agony at Gethsemane. The basilica was built by Franciscans on the site of an ancient Byzantine church of the fourth century.

Tokio (AP).—In the light of a series of recent events which have readjusted Japan's international political situation, vernacular newspapers profess to see the possibility of another policy toward Russia.

Tokio, June 16, AP.—While Anti-American agitation showing definite signs of subsidence in Tokio, it is continuing very actively in other cities of the empire.

Geneva.—Hjalmar Branting, former Premier of Sweden and present Swedish representative of the Committee of the League of Nations, was elected president of the International Labor Conference by acclamation today when the conference opened its sessions here.

TRY BROADCAST TO BALLOONS IN BELGIAN RACE

U. S. Racers Carry Apparatus and the Wife of Major Peck Sends Message From Here

Springfield, June 16.—Though the result of the experiment will not be known until some of the Gordon Bennett balloon racers come to earth, attempts to communicate with them by radio were made from the Springfield broadcast station of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, WBSZ, and these attempts will be renewed tonight. Because none of the racing balloons have transmitting apparatus, the attempt is limited to the effort to send messages that shall be received by the apparatus carried by some of the balloons. It is understood that the three American balloons are so equipped.

Beginning at 1:30 a. m. daylight saving time, and continued for half an hour, messages were sent out. The messages included a ten-minute address by Vice President Davis of the Army Squadron of America and several telegrams, including one from Commander Landwehr of the Shenandoah and one from Mrs. Peck to her husband, Major Peck, of the 812, one of the American balloons. Messages will be broadcast from station WBSZ between 9 and 9:30 o'clock tonight.

SEVERAL CONTESTS IN MAINE PRIMARIES

Portland, Me., June 15.—Maine voters went to the polls today to elect in nomination Republican and Democratic candidates for Governor. U. S. Senator, Congressman, state officers and members of the Legislature.

Senator Bert M. Fernald, Republican, was opposed for re-election by former Congressman Frank E. Quann and Louis W. Jack. Patton J. Holman was opposed for the Democratic nomination for senator.

Frank G. Farrington and Ralph O. Brewster were the candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor, with William H. Fanning opposed for the Democratic nomination. The Ku Klux Klan further the campaign announced its support of Brewster.

Robber, After 31 Years in Prison, Given 15 Years More

New York, June 16.—A maximum sentence of fifteen years in prison for robbery was imposed today upon Henry H. Curtis, who was convicted of stealing $60 in Brooklyn. Joseph Ruggiero was sentenced for seven years and six months to fifteen years. They were found guilty of holding up the Brooklyn furniture store of Arthur White.

Six years ago Curtis was released from Westchester (Ct.) Prison after serving thirty-one years in connection with the death of a woman who was killed in a house which he was robbing.

Telegraph Briefs

Mount Clemens, Mich.—Crawling up to the window of a cottage in which two men and their wives were playing cards today, William Sheldahl, alias unknown, fired a bullet into the room, killing one man and one woman. He then ran 100 yds. from the place and killed himself.

Washington.—The 19th anniversary of the Quartermaster's Corps, the business branch of the army, was being observed today by members of the Quartermaster Association at a luncheon throughout the country.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Joseph Sloop Gentry, buyers of crude oil for the Standard Oil Company, announced today a 25-cent decline in the Chemung grade. The new price is $1.30.

'NEST EGG' THEFT NO BAR TO WEDDING

A little thing like the theft of a $100 "nest egg" by a bride-to-be today failed to prevent the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Holland, No. 12 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury, and John Donaghy, No. 7 Washington street, South End. They were married in the rectory of the Cathedral. The "nest egg" was stolen from the groom's home. Two blood-haired brides and a male accomplice left in Donaghy's motor and got the money.

WIFE'S ILLNESS PLEADS FOR SUSPECT

Mrs. Wilson Says She Will Be Lenient in Attempted Kidnaping Case

New York, June 16.—Because the wife of Robert Brady, alleged kidnaping plotter, is poor and seriously ill, Mrs. Archibald Wilson, wife of a wealthy publisher, said today she would deal leniently with him on the charge of attempting to kidnap her four-year-old son.

Brady is held in $1,000 bail, charged with threatening the boy with death unless $10,000 was paid to him immediately. Several letters with such threats were received by Mrs. Wilson. They were signed "Fred Rome."

Police say Brady, who lives in a shabby tenement at Rockway beach, wanted to send his tubercular wife to a health resort.

TAXI PERMITS REVOKED AT 3 HOTELS

Private tax drivers were reaping a harvest today with the revocation of the permits of regular companies to stand at the Hotel Touraine, Adams House and American House.

The companies affected are the Town, Yellow and Checker, and the town department action was taken as punishment for their alleged practice of maintaining more than one line of cabs at the hotels with a consequent congesting of traffic. Thousands of dollars were lost by the three companies. The revocation was for forty-eight hours and ends at midnight tonight.

"SKINNERS" BUSY.

Taxis have been loaded with the last expedition possible during the suspension so far, and cabs not allowed to stand have been kept circling around the block, around and around, until hailed by the cab skippers who have been ready for them.

In the meantime, competing cabs have reaped a harvest by stopping the hotel blocks and watching for taxis from impatient guests in a hurry to reach railroad stations, downtown piers and business appointments.

Suspension of the permits to stand has brought contention by some of the independents that they have a right to stand in the vacant places for public service.

BIG CALL TODAY.

Starters in charge of the regular stands, temporarily unable to stand, have contended that these stands must be kept clear, on the ground that no cab without a permit has a right to occupy them.

The heavy burden of the suspension comes today, a full business day and the day before a holiday—Bunker Hill Day. The calls for cabs from the three hotels mentioned are tremendous on the day before a holiday, to take people to trains, ships and home in a hurry, from offices during the rush hours on the railway lines.

Persons are calling. Enlist in the Army and obey the call; or serve in New England. Enlistments for a choice of positions—U. S. and Overseas—are open to men mentally and physically fit, between 18 and 35, without dependence. Take car at South station for Army House, 600 Summer Street, Tel. Main 5700, Branch 22.

DEPENDABILITY Is the Essence of Automobiling Pleasure

Whether it is a brand new automobile or one that has been driven many thousands of miles, the pleasure it affords its owner rests entirely upon the dependability of its service. That is the word—dependability. A good, faithful automobile is unexcelled as a vehicle of convenience and enjoyment. But a car that is continually "going wrong" is much worse than none at all.

Buy a good car for your family and yourself. There are many used cars on the market which will meet all your requirements and still be within your means. Only an expert, however, can pick a real bargain.

Insist on the INSPECTED-INSURED CERTIFICATE

To get down to facts, an automobile is an intricate assembly of metal parts, and these parts are subject to wear. Only an expert can judge a car's actual condition, and then only after careful examination. That is what the Boston American's "Inspected-Insured" service does for you. Insist on seeing the "Inspected-Insured" certificate on the used car you buy. Assure yourself of getting exactly what you pay for. Protect yourself BEFORE you invest your money.

Expert automobile mechanics employed by the Boston American inspect every used car advertised in its columns. Each car's condition, as these experts find it, is reported on the "Inspected-Insured" blue certificate which is pasted on the windshield. You need merely to study this certificate in order to protect yourself against misrepresentation or exaggeration.

SHARKEYS TO TRAIN FOR FLOYD JOHNSON AT WAMESET

LOWELL IS CORNER

By JACK CONWAY.

Jack Sharkey, former heavyweight champion of the world, is training for Floyd Johnson at Wameset today, where he is training for his second round bout with Floyd Johnson of Iowa, which will be staged by the Suffolk A. A. at Mechanics Building on next Monday night.

Martin Flannery, one of the world's leading 150-pound heavyweights, who directed the training camp at Wameset, Flannery's camp is getting to be known as a lucky spot for boxers.

Johnson will be training in New York.

LOWELL FANS CONSIDER BILLY MURPHY UNBEATABLE

Billy Murphy, Lowell's lightweight champion, continues to win easily. Lou Palumbo of Salt Lake City was his latest victim. Murphy has won thirty-three bouts which is a record for a young man might well be proud of.

Alvin McLean, who placed Jack Johnson to the front in the world's game, and who also directed Matt Baldwin and Gilbert Gallant, is managing Murphy. This means that the Lowell journeyer will get an expert handling and a good fight.

If the Boston Commission will give its permission, Harry White, colored heavyweight champion, may be seen in action in a Boston ring against Battling McCrory of the city.

McCrory would have to spin Wain more than twenty pounds lighter, as he is raised as a much better fighter than Madden but would give Wain an interesting session.

VERDICT TO FRANK MOODY WAS NOT UNANIMOUS

Frank Moody did not receive a unanimous verdict over Jack McKenna. One of the judges, this writer learned from an authoritative source, voted for McKenna, while the other two voted for Moody.

Moody was a poor bout, but it was an excuse for a wretched conclusion.

This is an off week for boxing and wrestling fans. There are no more billed for this city. The inactivity gives the fans an opportunity to think of other things and get to appreciate the interest of the public in high class matches.

CRIMSON CREW HAS DAY OFF

Red Top, Conn., June 16.—The Harvard crew spent a day of complete rest yesterday. In the morning they boarded the launch, which carried them to New London, where the guests of J. P. Morgan, Jr., were enjoyed along Long Island Sound and across to Rock Island.

Here the best anchor was thrown, giving an opportunity for a dip and a swim in the water, which was very cool.

This afternoon the Yale varsity crew will call on the Harvard crew to make their annual visit. At the same hour the Yale man aqua will go to Yale quaters to pay their respects to the Yale rowers.

AMERICAN TRAINED HORSE WINS DERBY

Chastity, France, June 16.—The Jersey Club stakes, "the Derby Derby," was won today by Portage Canada was second and Alibi Alibi third.

Old Chum, owned by Guillermo Jams, trained by Juan Toranzo of Argentina and ridden by the Argentine jockey D. Toranzo, which was one of the favorites to win the race, was replaced. The son of Sparvius was never prominent in the running and failing to get to the finishers of the South American stakes was a thrill for the money they wagered on him.

Such popularity must be deserved

WHETHER it's tennis or cigarettes or anything else, popularity is no stroke of luck, no kindly twist of fate. No champion ever held his laurels except by making good. No cigarette ever held popular favor except by deserving it.

The popularity of Chesterfields is an outstanding example. For months now Chesterfields have been drawing over 1000 smokers a day away from other cigarettes. Surely this is convincing proof of their quality and good taste.

Fresh Highs for Year Are Recorded in Wall Street Dealings

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Cheerful developments have come thick and fast, and the market has the lead, but encouraging happenings have not been confined to Wall Street.

Bonds are today on the best level attained this year. The market is commanding better prices than the best realized in any recent year with the exception of 1922. Government issues have been notably strong. Of course, lower money rates have helped, but there has been a distinct change in sentiment in many influential circles.

In this country there are always enterprising leaders who are prepared to take advantage of every cheap money. First the New York and Boston Federal Reserve banks lowered their rates to 3½ per cent, and later in the week the Chicago and Cleveland banks followed.

Wall Street, day-by-day, was obtainable at the lowest rates in half-a-dozen years. Time loans were marked down, bank rates were cut, and the market at the lowest rates ever recorded here, and lower even than London's figures, at the present time.

The Federal Reserve system reported another gain in its percentage of reserve. Watch for mergers, both railroad and industrial. An abundance of money at an extraordinarily low rate has created a demand for securities, and the market is in a position to put through under such conditions. While there are no real panics, the market is in a position to put through under such conditions.

Flickering Hopes

It is both unnecessary and unwise to rest upon the wings of hope. In a time of your own you can only find the way to a better future by the steady hand of hope and the steady hand of hope.

WHEN YOU'RE TIRED AND WEARY
From the effects of an all-day shopping tour, just sit back in a comfortable chair and resolve to shop The American's classified way. A product of progress.

"consistently advertising - pleased"

We have been consistently advertising in the Boston American and are pleased with the results obtained for the American.

The news, entertainment, education, and helpful services have made the Boston American the largest home-delivered newspaper in New England.

We Shall Control This Earth One Day

Already We Rule, Cultivate and PATROL It

One of the great icebergs in the Atlantic ship lanes and near it a patrol vessel of the United States Coast Guard watching it, warning ship captains by wireless.

The Bible tells us that man was put on this earth to have dominion over it:

"And God said: Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

In addition to ruling fish, fowl, cattle and creeping things, man also has achieved dominion over icebergs, although the Bible does not mention them. The picture shows you a ship of the U. S. Coast Guard, sailing along between two gigantic icebergs, of which only one is shown in the picture. The duty of the patrol vessel is to stay near the icebergs as they move slowly through the ocean's waters, constantly sending out radio signals, especially at night and in fog, warning all ships on the ocean against the icy monsters whose touch means destruction.

This picture represents one more step in man's control of this earth, which is his inheritance—all that he has, all that he can hope for, until he passes through the mysterious door that we call "death."

A solemn newspaper writer the other day spoke of this earth as a powerful monster that men could "never entirely control." That's nonsense, and this picture proves it.

Man's control of the earth is not perfect YET, but he is on his way to perfect control. He cannot yet prevent the icebergs breaking loose and floating down through the lanes of ocean travel. But he CAN send a ship with them to make them harmless.

Man's physical power is not as great as that of Niagara or the lightning. But he uses both as his slaves—Niagara's power is harnessed to manufacture fame lightning that goes wherever it is bid over wires and turns the wheels of great machinery.

Men connect oceans, as at Panama and at Suez, taking short cuts across the earth, where they like. They conquer the high mountains. They change the course of rivers, grow wheat where forests grew and plant forests where there were none before. They wipe out diseases in vast districts, drain marshes, irrigate deserts, use the hydraulic power of the streams that rush down from mountains to wash away those same mountains and separate from them the gold that they contain.

The day may come—it probably will—when instead of sending a patrol vessel to watch these great icebergs, man will divert the surplus heat from the Equator to the Poles, melt the icebergs, or, rather, never let them start, dividing evenly the heat of the earth, directing great heat-bearing currents, like the Gulf Stream, as easily as he now directs and diverts any brook.

"It hath not yet been shown what we shall be." Bear that in mind, and never doubt that among other things we shall one day really be lords, rulers and COMPLETE MASTERS of this earth. That's our destiny.

A Fighting Religion

And Common Sense

Admiral Fiske, who knows something about warfare and ships and modern methods, denounces national indifference to the navy and says, "Keeping America safe on the sea ought to be considered a national religion."

So it ought, for to leave America unsafe at sea—and IN THE AIR—might end some fine day in changing our religion, for our ancestors' religions for some ONE brand imported from Asia.

It is well to remember that if "Charles the Hammer" had not proved himself a good fighter at the battle of Potosi, in all probability the doctrines of Mahomet would be taught now at Oxford and Cambridge, as an eloquent gentleman once remarked.

In addition to being a "national religion" preparedness is the essence of national COMMON SENSE, and national ECONOMY. KEEPING ready costs about one-tenth of what it costs to get ready in a hurry, and it's ten times as efficient.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES!

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By HELEN ROWLAND

Business, Baseball and Baseball

Childhood appear to be the "three R's" in which every man aims to participate these days.

There's a very fine line between pleasing a man's curiosity and arousing his suspicion; but the woman who can balance herself on the delicate wire has a very fine line between her life for life.

A woman never thinks of any man under five as a "teacher" because as long as he is vulnerable and the mold hasn't "set," NO man is anything but a prospective husband.

For a man to kiss a woman with his hat on was once shocking form and a crime against nature; but nowadays most of them seem to think that a girl should feel flattered to be kissed by a man in ANY costume.

There are times when a cell from a good-looking burglar would seem almost thrilling to a married woman, after seeing nobody but the postman, the janitor and the policeman for weeks.

A man never can understand what joy a woman extracts from dragging him out to a restaurant dinner every Sunday, and then spending all the time telling how much better she could have cooked it.

No man is a hero to his cook who has to put up with his before breakfast grouches; to his wife—who has to put his feet in mustard water; to his strong-arm player—who has to invent alibis so that he can sneak off to the ball game; in short, to any woman who sees him "here" make-up officer.

Maybe if we spent some time and patience in coloring and flavoring marriage as a man wastes in coloring and flavoring a two-dollar dip, it, too, might turn out sweet and mellow after a while.

On the screen you will find the only perfectly happy woman in the world; no matter how she suffers, she always does it in ravishing colors, and no matter how she dies, she never dies of BOREDOM.

Forced to Give Up Baby
Editor Helping Hand:
This is an unusual plea, but I realize the time it takes for such matters and am therefore acting now to avoid delay. My husband has been out of work since the Winter and is not working now. I am twenty-one years of age, and we have one baby and are expecting another next month. We have no means of paying board and doctor's bills. Can you help us find a childless mother who would give the baby a place in her heart and home and also make arrangements regarding expenses involved. I regret that I am forced to give up the baby as soon as it is born, but I also realize that it would be unkind to let it starve. I can hardly scrape up enough money to pay for my other little one's milk.

MRS. F. M. W.

Most Generous Gift
Editor Helping Hand:
I have clothing and shoes for children a year old, three years old and three or four months old. Also a few dresses for girls eleven and fourteen, and a few for boys. I have a few more dresses, size 36, and some small pieces of crepe for patchwork. The clothes are not new, but will wear for quite a while. I like to have some one call for the things if possible, and I will pay car fare.

MRS. E. M. D.

Who Will Help This Helper?
Editor Helping Hand:
In the past I have helped the needy in the hospital, in the children's clothes, and now I would like to ask if there is any among them who could help me. I have been sick and have bills to pay. I wear size 40 in dress and 6 in shoes.

DR. FRANK CRANE ON DRINKING SONGS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

H AS the Eighteenth Amendment destroyed the light opera industry?

John Philip Sousa, in his testimony before the House Patents Committee the other day, declared that Prohibition had destroyed the light opera industry because it had required drinking songs of the rollicking kind and "we can't write them nowadays, apparently inspiration is lacking."

This is the hub of the whole matter. If we are to declare ourselves permanently for the program of Prohibition we will have to go back and rearrange the traditions of the world.

Always drinking has been a merry jest. It has been made one by the youth, who are prepared to fling away their lives at the slightest instigation.

Drinking has interwoven its roots very deeply with the traditions of civilization.

The trouble is that it has been an easy shortcut for the common man to escape from the tragedy of life.

The usual avenues of intoxication have been closed to him. The opportunities for culture and travel and books have been shut in his face by his own limitations. There remains nothing for him to do except to get drunk.

The Eighteenth Amendment renders it necessary that, if a man shall get out of himself, he shall get up. He can no longer escape by the shortcut of alcohol.

After all the deep issues that underlie the consumption of alcohol are not to be fought out in the exalted plane by the Dr. Butlers of society but are to be settled upon the lower plane of the instinct.

Those who love their country cannot resist the feeling of pleasure that the corner grog shop has been closed and that the multitude of them that sought it have been forced to go elsewhere.

There never has been a time when the savings of the country have more increased and its general welfare been more promoted than since the passage of the Prohibition Amendment.

The people know this. They see it before their eyes. It comes home to men's business and bosoms.

And not all the argument or special pleading of those who are opposed to Prohibition, largely because of the character of those who champion it, will be of any avail.

Eventually it is a question that will be settled by conscience and conscience always speaks for the greatest number.

GARRETT P. SERVISS ON TYPES OF MINDS

By Garrett P. Serviss

Famous Astronomer and Writer
Scientific Topics of Popular Interest

I READ recently a statement of the opinion that H. G. Wells had "beaten Jules Verne on his own ground."

It is really a statement of the opinion that Mr. Wells, for whose peculiar literary effects, at the best, nobody has greater admiration than I have, has never been at all the point is worth thinking about because it turns out to be a distinction of mental character of great importance in our study of our fellow men and of ourselves.

Verne and Wells represent two types of mind. Jules Verne has the mind of an engineer, though with a richer imagination and a more practical sense of the possibilities of the future, but his imagination was all of a practical type and what it saw was sharply defined and capable of clear description.

His mind had the transparency of a quartz lens. In its boldest conceptions there was nothing indistinct. When Verne describes a marvelous machine, he tells us exactly what it is, and the reader can see it in his mind's eye.

But the other type of mind—and I repeat my admiration of the wonderful effects it can produce—remembers one of those "specimens," or "specimens," in which certain persons "foresee the future and the distant," and have other visions of the future.

The seers report that at first everything becomes dark, and then the clouds begin to part, and then the visions begin to appear.

A mind of this type loves to see the future.

From Postal Employee
Editor American:
One of the greatest tragedies in the history of the Postal service took place June 7 in Washington. For on that day, Senator Edge, the sponsor of the Postal Salary Bill, at Atlantic City, was by the bill permitted to lay on the table the salary of the postmaster, but a day before had voted unanimously in its favor.

It is a pity that the Constitution allows the simple way of removing a man from office, and the practically unanimous decision of almost 350 duly elected Senators and Congressmen, for the House by a vote of 266 to 8, voted to remove him from office.

The total men are grateful to Senator Walsh for his sincere effort to have the Senate act on the salary of the postmaster. Clyde Kelly, their champion in the House.
